

STOP
BULLYING
NOW

STAND UP • SPEAK OUT

A woman with long blonde hair, wearing a teal sweater, is shown in the foreground, looking distressed with her hand to her face. In the background, three other women are visible, appearing to bully her. One woman in a red top is pointing at her. The scene is set outdoors with blurred trees in the background.

Bullying can be defined in many different ways

Here are the some of the many ways when bullies bully others

Physical bullying

Cyber bullying

Verbal bullying

Sexual bullying

A photograph of a person sitting alone in a school hallway. The person is wearing a dark hoodie and dark pants, sitting with their head down and hands clasped. The hallway has blue walls and doors, and there are windows on the right side. The overall atmosphere is somber and suggests themes of isolation and bullying.

Bullying can occur multiple psychological and physical damages to the persons who get bullied

Harm self is one of the the damages that bullying can occur

A photograph of a wooden table surface. On the left, a dark ashtray contains a lit cigarette with smoke rising. To the right, a lowball glass filled with whisky and several large ice cubes sits on a dark saucer. The lighting is warm, highlighting the texture of the wood and the liquid in the glass.

Alcohol and drugs addiction is one of the damages that bullying can
occur

A yellow teddy bear is positioned horizontally across the center of the image. A pair of large, metallic black garden shears is held vertically, with its blades cutting through the bear's body from the neck down to the midsection. The bear's head is turned slightly to the right, showing a dark brown nose and two small dark eyes. Its body is a light yellow color with visible stitching along the seams.

Suicide is the worst damage that bullying can occur

The most of the people let their friends get bullyed without doing anything but they must support and help their bullied friends

